

POWER WINDOW CONTROL SYSTEM (If equipped)

The power window control system is so designed that it electrically controls up & down movement of side door window glass by means of the motor which is installed to the window regulator. The system consists of the ignition switch, power window switches, window regulator motors and related wiring harness. The figure below shows location of its component parts and wiring diagram.

60A50-8-27-1S

WIRING DIAGRAM

60A50-8-27-2S